

DUNCHIDEOCK Church FETE

Saturday 1st June 2019

This popular bi-annual event takes place on Saturday 1st June in the lovely grounds of Dunchideock House starting at 1.30 p.m.

Make a date in your diary to come and enjoy the pleasure of a traditional village Fete. Enjoy the relaxing music by the popular South West Telecoms Band coupled with the sounds of laughter and enjoyment from the various entertainments around the gardens such as crockery smashing, welly whanging, rat splatting and the hugely popular Fun Dog Show. Indulge yourself at the cake and plant and produce stalls, the BBQ and the Pimms and Strawberries, and, of course, the ever popular cream teas. Take part in the Duck race and buy lots of draw tickets with the chance of winning £100 and many other prizes.

Plus this is a rare opportunity to 'come and get treacled' by visiting the 'Dunchideock Treacle Mine' which only opens to visitors on Fete Day.

All are welcome – bring your friends – it's a special day !
Car Parking is available nearby.
